EVENTS CALENDAR – Please note location of each signing!

Thursday, April 5, 2012 ROBERT GREER – *ASTRIDE A PINK HORSE

6:00pm

Signing at the Mortgage West Gallery, 1705 S. Pearl St., Denver, CO

This new book is a departure for Dr. Greer. He steps away from the C.J. Floyd series to introduce a new cast- Major Bernadette Cameron, an Air Force Special Investigations agent; Elgin Coseia, former basketball star, now a web newspaper reporter; and Freddy Dames, owner of the web paper. The three investigate the death of a retired Air Force nuclear missile technician, an investigation that unravels a story with its roots in World War II. Dr. Greer lives in Denver, and is a professor of pathology, medicine, dermatology & dentistry at CU Medical center in Denver. He has written 9 books in the popular C.J. Floyd series and several stand-alone novels, including Colorado Book Award winner Spoon.

Saturday, April 7, 2012 C.J. BOX – *FORCE OF NATURE

3:00pm

Signing at the Mortgage West Gallery, 1705 S. Pearl St., Denver, CO

This is the 12th book in the best-selling series featuring Joe Pickett – who is now involved with trouble that emerges from Nate Romanowski's past in the Special Forces. A colleague of Nate's at that time did something terrible and that colleague is now trying to eliminate everyone who knows about it. He is targeting Nate's friends to draw him out, which puts the whole Pickett family at risk. C.J. Box has won the Edgar, Macavity, Anthony and Barry awards, along with the French PrixCalibre .38. Besides the Pickett novels he has also written three stand-alone novels including Edgar Award winner Blue Heaven. He lives near Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Tuesday, May 1, 2012 SANDRA DALLAS – *TRUE SISTERS

6:00 pm

Signing at the Mortgage West Gallery, 1705 S. Pearl St., Denver, CO

Sandra began a writing career as a reporter with Business Week, serving as the magazine's first female bureau chief. While a reporter, she began writing award-winning nonfiction. Sandra has also published nine novels. She won the Women Writing the West Willa Award for New Mercies, and the Western Writers of America Spur Award, for The Chili Queen and Tallgrass. True Sisters is about four women who are members of the Martin Company pushing handcarts across the prairies and mountains to Utah. The characters are fictional, but they are based on journals, stories, & accounts of real women who braved the hardship of the handcart trek, finding faith, friendship, & joy in the journey.

Sunday, May 6, 2012 NANCY ATHERTON – *AUNT DIMITY AND THE VILLAGE WITCH

1:00pm

Signing at the Bell Studio Gallery, 1573 S. Pearl St., Denver, CO

To keep the peace in her quiet village of Finch, Lori helps a world famous artist, Amelia, to conceal her true identity and sets to work solving the riddle that brought Amelia to Finch in the first place. A fragment of a family diary hints that Amelia might be a direct descendant of Mistress Meg, the Mad Witch of Finch. So goes the 17th book in this popular series that has gotten Nancy Atherton a Macavity nomination for Best First Novel, and a Best Novel nomination for the Dily's Award. Nancy herself lives in Colorado Springs, CO having relocated from the middle of a cornfield in Illinois.

Coming soon: Craig Johnson (Tues., June 5 at noon)

IN MEMORIAM

We are sad to report that Dorothy Gilman, an espionage writer who created the well-known spy and garden-club member, Mrs. Pollifax, has died at the age of 88. The Mystery Writer's of America had named Dorothy Gilman as its Grand Master in 2010.

Also, Judi McCoy, author of the "Dog Walker Mystery" series, as well as other novels, died Feb. 18, 2012 in Virginia. The Dog Walker mysteries were introduced in 2009 with Hounding the Pavement, royalties of which were donated to the Best Friends Animal Society.
